"Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence— I conjure you to believe me, fellow-citizens—the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake; since history and experience prove, that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of a republican government."
I hope we may find some means, in future, of shielding ourselves from foreign influence, political, commercial, or in whatever form it may be attempted. I fear scarcely without myself from joining in the wish of Miss Dean, that there were an ocean of fire between this and the old world."

At a regular meeting of the National Council of the American Party, begun and held at Philadelphia, on the 5th of June, A. D., 1855, the following was adopted as The Platform and Principles of the Organization.
I.—The acknowledgment of that Almighty Being, who rules over the Universe—who presides over the councils of nations—who conducts the affairs of men, and who, in every step by which we have advanced to the character of an independent nation, has distinguished us by some token of Providential agency.
II.—The cultivation and development of a sentiment of profoundly intense American feeling; of passionate attachment to our country, its history and its institutions; of admiration for the purest days of our national existence; of veneration for the heroism that precipitated our Revolution; and of emulation of the virtue, wisdom, and patriotism that framed our constitution and first successfully applied its provisions.
III.—The maintenance of the union of these United States as the paramount political good; or, to use the language of Washington, "the primary object of patriotic desire." And hence—
1st. Opposition to all attempts to weaken or subvert it.
2d. Uncompromising antagonism to every principle of policy that endangers it.
3d. The advocacy of an equitable adjustment of all political differences which threaten its integrity or perpetuity.
4th. The suppression of all tendencies to political division, founded on "geographical distinctions, or on the belief that there is a real difference of interests and views" between the various sections of the Union.
5th. The full recognition of the rights of the several States, as expressed and reserved in the Constitution; and a careful avoidance, by the General Government, of all interference with their rights by legislative or executive action.
IV.—Obedience to the Constitution of these United States, as the supreme law of the land, secretly obligatory upon all its parts and members; and steadfast resistance to the spirit of innovation upon its principles, however specious the pretext. Averting that in all doubtful or disputed points it may only be legally ascertained and expounded by the judicial power of the United States.
And, as a corollary to the above:
1. A habit of reverential obedience to the law, whether National, State, or Municipal, until they are either repealed or declared unconstitutional by the proper authority.
2. A tender and sacred regard for those acts of statecraft, which are to be contradistinguished from acts of ordinary legislation, by the fact of their being of the nature of compact and agreement; and so, to be considered a fixed and settled national policy.
V.—A radical revision and modification of the laws regulating immigration, and the settlement of immigrants. Offering to the honest immigrant who, from love of liberty or hatred of oppression, seeks an asylum in the United States, a friendly reception and protection. But unqualifiedly condemning the transmission to our shores of felons and paupers.
VI.—The essential modification of the Naturalization Laws.
The repeal by the Legislatures of the respective States, of all State laws allowing foreigners not naturalized to vote.
The repeal, without retroactive operation, of all acts of Congress making grants of land to unnaturalized foreigners, and allowing them to vote in the Territories.
VII.—Hostility to the corrupt means by which the leaders of party have hitherto forced upon our rulers and our political friends.
Implacable enmity against the prevalent demagogism of rewards for political subservience, and of punishments for political independence.
Disgust for the wild hunt after office which characterizes the age.
These on the one hand. On the other—
1. Imitation of the practice of the purer days of the Republic; and admiration of the maxim that "office should seek the man, and not man the office," and of the rule that, the just mode of ascertaining fitness for office is the capability, the faithfulness, and the honesty of the incumbent or candidate.
VIII.—Resistance to the aggressive policy and corrupting tendencies of the Roman Catholic Church in our country by the advancement to all political stations—(executive, legislative, judicial, or diplomatic—of those only who do not hold civil allegiance, directly or indirectly, to any foreign power, whether civil or ecclesiastical, and who are Americans by birth, education and training—thus fulfilling the maxim: "AMERICANS ONLY SHALL GOVERN AMERICA."

over any other in the State, by means of any special privileges or exemption, by any political combination of its members, or by a division of their civil allegiance with any foreign power, potentate, or ecclesiastical.

IX.—The reformation of the character of our National Legislature, by elevating to that dignified and responsible position men of higher qualifications, purer morals, and more unselfish patriotism.

X.—The restriction of executive patronage, especially in the matter of appointments to office, so far as it may be permitted by the Constitution, and consistent with the public good.

XI.—The education of the youth of our country in schools provided by the State; which schools shall be common to all, without distinction of creed or party, and free from any influence or direction of a denominational or partisan character.

And, inasmuch as Christianity, by the Constitutions of nearly all the States; by the decisions of the most eminent judicial authorities; and by the consent of the people of America, is considered an element of our political system; and, as the Holy Bible is at once the source of Christianity, and the depository and fountain of all civil and religious freedom, we oppose every attempt to exclude it from the schools thus established in the States.

XII.—The American party having arisen upon the ruins and in spite of the opposition of the Whig and Democratic parties, cannot be in any manner responsible for the obnoxious acts of violated pledges of either. And the systematic agitation of the slavery question by those parties having elevated sectional hostility into a positive element of political power, and brought our institutions into peril, it has therefore become the imperative duty of the American party to interpose for the purpose of giving peace to the country and perpetuity to the Union. And as experience has shown it impossible to reconcile opinions so extreme as those which separate the disputants, and as there can be no dishonor in submitting to the laws of the National Council, which is the best guarantee of common justice and of future peace to abide by and maintain the existing laws upon the subject of slavery, as a final and conclusive settlement of that subject, in spirit and in substance.

And regarding it the highest duty to avow their opinions upon a subject so important, in distinct and unequivocal terms, it is hereby declared as the sense of this National Council, that Congress possesses no power, under the Constitution, to legislate upon the subject of Slavery in the States where it does or may exist, or to exclude any State from admission into the Union, because its Constitution does or does not recognize the institution of Slavery as a part of its social system; and expressly precluding any expression of opinion upon the power of Congress to establish or prohibit Slavery in any Territory, it is the sense of the National Council that Congress ought not to legislate upon the subject of Slavery within the Territories of the United States, and that any interference by Congress with Slavery as it exists in the District of Columbia, would be a violation of the spirit and intention of the compact by which the State of Maryland ceded the District to the United States, and a breach of the National faith.

XIII.—The policy of the Government of the United States, in its relations with foreign governments, is to exact justice from the strongest, and do justice to the weakest; restraining, by all the power of the government, all its citizens from interference with the internal concerns of nations with whom we are at peace.

XIV.—This National Council declares that all the principles of the Order shall be honored and everywhere openly avowed; and that each member shall be at liberty to make known the existence of the Order, and the fact that he himself is a member, and it recommends that there be no concealment of the places of meeting of subordinate councils.

E. B. BARTLETT, of Kentucky, President of National Council.

Young Men, Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave, thousands of young men, of the most excellent talents and brilliant intellects, who might otherwise have been the ornaments of the State, the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

Marriage, Married Persons, young men contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, organic debility, deformities, &c., should immediately consult Dr. J., and be restored.

Organic Weakness, Immediately cured and full vigor restored. He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

Dr. Johnston, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that ever were known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep; great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, unsteadiness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

Take Particular Notice, Dr. J., addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, marriage, or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

Mentally, The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Derangement of Spirit, Fears, Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Denial, Loss of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages, can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, have a singular morbidness about the eyes, cough, and symptoms of Consumption.

Young Men, Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must before contemplating

Marriage, reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote conjugal happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes weary, the prime of the prospect darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection, that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

Dr. Johnston's Invigorating Remedy, for Organic Weakness, By this great and important remedy, Weakness of the Organs are speedily cured, and full vigor restored.

Thousands of the most nervous and debilitated, who had lost all hope, have been immediately relieved. All Indigestion, Derangement of the Stomach, Mental Depression, Nervous Trembling, Weakness or Exhaustion of the most fearful kind, speedily cured.

To Strangers, The many thousands of most desperate cases cured at this institution within the last twelve years, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston, witnessed by the reports of the papers, and many other persons, notices of which have appeared in the public press, before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

When the aggravated and imprudent rotatory of pleasure finds he has injured the needs of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone benefit him, delaying till the constitution is so much impaired, that the prospect before him, appearing as a gloomy and gloomy, and again full of despair, affecting the head, throat, nose, skin, &c., progressing on with frightful rapidity, till death pursues him from whence no traveler returns." It is a melancholy fact that thousands of victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unbelief of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.

MEMORIAL OF THE NATIVE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.
JANUARY 8, 1838.—Motions to refer pending.

WASHINGTON, January 1, 1838.
SIR: At a general meeting of the Native American Association of this city, held on Tuesday, the 26th ultimo, the honor of communicating the enclosed copy of their unanimous resolution, confiding the accompanying memorial to your charge, was conferred on the undersigned.

Without professing any knowledge of your sentiments on the subject of the memorial, the Association, of which we are the organs, rely upon your known comity and readiness to comply in your public capacity with the proper wishes of any of your fellow-citizens; and we trust that the tone and temper of the paper placed in your hands, as well as the reasonableness of its prayer, will commend it to your favorable consideration, and insure for it such support from you as may be consistent with a just sense of public duty.

With great respect, your fellow-countryman,
HENRY M. MORRITT, Pres't Nat. Am. Assoc'n, Washington City.
HENRY J. BRENT, JOSEPH H. BRADLEY, R. K. MORSELL, GEORGE SWEENEY, Committee.

To the Hon. JOHN M. PATTON.
WASHINGTON, January 5, 1838.

SIR: I enclose a copy of the resolutions passed by the Native American Association at their last meeting, requesting a committee, in the names of its members, to present their memorial to the House of Representatives, through you.

The Association is very desirous that this petition be presented as soon as possible, that they may have the credit of being the first to appear before the National Legislature in this behalf.

A powerful appeal is expected to be made shortly from New York, and you will greatly oblige us if our memorial is presented on the next Monday.

Respectfully, your fellow-countryman,
HENRY M. MORRITT.
To the Hon. JOHN M. PATTON.

NATIVE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.
Pursuant to notice, the Native American Association met on the 26th ult., to receive and consider the report of the committee appointed to draw up a memorial to Congress on the subject of the laws of naturalization, and for other purposes. H. J. Brent, Esq., in the absence of the President, was called to the chair; when George Sweeney, Esq., on behalf of said committee, made a report.

Mr. A. H. Quincy offered the following resolution: Resolved, That the report of the committee appointed to draw up a memorial to Congress, on the subject of the laws of naturalization, be adopted, and signed by the President and Secretaries.

Unanimously adopted. On motion of Dr. T. D. Jones, Resolved, That he, and they are hereby, appointed a committee to wait on the Hon. N. P. Tallmadge, of the Senate of the United States, from New York, and the Hon. J. M. Patton, of the House of Representatives of the United States, from Virginia, and respectfully request that said members will take charge of the said memorial, and bring before their respective bodies at their earliest convenience; and to give it their support; and to promote the objects of the memorial, so far as comports with their sense of public duty.

It was moved that the Chair lift up the blank with the names of three gentlemen. Agreed to. In compliance, the Chair appointed Joseph H. Bradley, B. K. Morse, and George Sweeney, Esquires.

On motion of J. C. Brent, Esq., Resolved, That a list of the names of the members of the Association be drawn off, and that said list accompany, or be appended to, the memorial when presented.

On motion of J. Bender, Esq., Resolved, That the publishers of the National Intelligencer, Globe, and Madrasian, be requested to publish said memorial, with the proceedings of this meeting in relation thereto, in their respective newspapers, after the presentation thereof to Congress.

On motion, Resolved, That the President of the Association, and the chairman of this meeting, be added to the committee to present the memorial to Congress. And then the meeting adjourned.

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled:

RESPECTFULLY REPRESENTS: That your memorialists have been taught that it is at all times the right, and sometimes the duty, of every citizen of this free country to address to those who have been set over him in authority the language of complaint, either upon matters which immediately affect him individually, or which concern the general welfare of the whole people.

Separated, as your memorialists are, from the great body of their fellow-citizens, by the wide expanse of the Atlantic, and by the vastness of the innumerable privileges that distinguish a free and exalted people, they view the political sacrifices they have made for the benefit and security of the National Legislature, as giving them the strongest claims to the attention of your honorable body, and humbly conceive that necessarily they should be heard, and that their petitions should be taken into consideration and make the residue of life miserable.

Strangers—The Dr.'s Dispensary hang in his office. Letters must contain a stamp to use on the reply. Remedies sent by mail.
